JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMES NOW LISETTE PAULSON, alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This civil rights action seeks compensatory and punitive damages from Defendants for violating various rights under the United States Constitution and New York state law in connection with the sexual discrimination (based on breast-feeding) and ultimate unlawful termination of employee LISETTE PAULSON.

PARTIES

2. At all relevant times herein, LISETTE PAULSON hereinafter referred to as “PLAINTIFF”) was an individual residing in the City of New York, County of New York.

3. At all relevant times herein, Defendant TIDAL is believed to be a Norwegian / Swedish Corporation doing business in New York, New York.

4. At all relevant times herein, Defendant ROC NATION is believed to be a New York Corporation doing business in New York, New York.

5. At all relevant times herein, Defendant DESIREE PEREZ is a resident of New York, New York. At all relevant times in this complaint Defendant PEREZ was the Chief Operating Officer of TIDAL.

6. At all relevant times herein, Defendant JOSEPH BORRINO is a resident of New York, New York. At all relevant times in this complaint Defendant BORRINO was the Chief Financial Officer of TIDAL.

7. At all relevant times herein, Defendant TIDAL (hereinafter “TIDAL”) was authorized to operate by the State of California and the United States Government and authorized and qualified to do business in the County of Los

1 Angeles. Defendants' place of business, where the following causes of action took
2 place, was and is in New York.

3 8. At all relevant times herein, Defendant ROC NATION (hereinafter 4 "ROC NATION") was authorized to operate by the State of New York and the 5 United States Government and authorized and qualified to do business in New 6 York. Defendants' place of business, where the following causes of action took
7 place, was and is in New York.

8 9. At all relevant times, DOES Defendants, were duly authorized 9 employees and agents of TIDAL, who were acting within their course and scope of 10 employment and within the complete authority and ratification of their principal, 11 Defendant TIDAL.

12 10. In doing the acts and failing and omitting to act as hereinafter
13 described, Defendants, individually and as employees; were acting on the implied
14 and actual permission and consent of the TIDAL.

15 11. At all times mentioned herein, each and every TIDAL defendant was 16 the agent of each and every other TIDAL defendant and had the legal duty to 17 oversee and supervise the hiring, conduct and employment of each and every 18 TIDAL defendant.

19 12. Plaintiffs are unaware of the true names and capacities of those 20 Defendants named herein as DOES 1-10 Defendants. Plaintiffs will amend this 21 Complaint to allege said Defendants' true names and capacities when that 22 information becomes known to Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs are informed and believes, and 23 thereon alleges that these DOES 1-10 are legally responsible and liable for the 24 incident, injuries, and damages hereinafter set forth, and that each of said
25 Defendants proximately caused the injuries and damages by reason of negligent,
26 careless, deliberately indifferent, intentional, willful, or wanton misconduct,
27
28

1 including the negligent, careless, deliberately indifferent, intentional, willful, or 2 wanted misconduct in creating and otherwise causing the incidents, conditions, and 3 circumstances hereinafter set forth, or by reason of direct or imputed negligence or 4 vicarious fault or breach of duty arising out of the matters herein alleged. Plaintiffs 5 will seek to amend this Complaint to set forth said true names and identities of the 6 unknown named DOE Defendants when they are ascertained.

7 8 PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS

9 13. On approximately June 2, 2015, within 300 days of the acts of which 10 she complains, Plaintiff filed charges of employment discrimination based on sex
11 against Defendants with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

12 14. On approximately September 9, 2016, less than 90 days prior to the 13 filing of this Complaint, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission issued a 14 Right-to-Sue letter with respect to Plaintiff's charges.

15 16 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

17 15. On approximately February 25, 2015, Plaintiff began working for 18 Defendant TIDAL as a Consultant. She was approached by Ms. Dorothy Hui –
19 acting head of digital. She offered a position paying $1250 per week for 20 hours.
20 Plaintiff confirmed a start date of March 2, 2015.

21 16. In early May of 2015, interim CEO Vania Schlogel asked if Plaintiff
22 would like to come back to work full time after she had her baby. CEO Schlogel
23 offered the Plaintiff the opportunity to work from home before coming back full 24 time.

26 ///

27 ///

1           17. On or around May 14, 2015, prior to leaving for maternity leave, had 2 a meeting with Chief Operating Officer Deiree Perez who confirmed that she
3 would be returning to work full time after having the baby.

4           18. On May 15, 2015, Plaintiff has a planned c-section and her unplanned
5 maternity leave begins.

6           19. On or about June 30, 2015, Plaintiff confirmed her start date on 7 September 8, 2015, with Defendant Perez. She reconfirmed her start date of 8 September 8, 2015, with Defendant Perez on or about July 15, 2015. She 9 confirmed that she was returning as a full time employee and not a consultant. She 10 mentioned that she wanted to confirm because she was hiring a nanny for her baby.
11 In response, Defendant Perez stated: "Don't worry, we'll take care of you."
12 Plaintiff relied upon this representation.

13           20. On September 8, 2015, relying on Defendant Perez' assurances and 14 promises, Plaintiff appeared at work. She worked there for approximately a week.
15 On or about September 14, 2015, she discussed her various matters with Defendant 16 Perez. These discussions include but are not limited to:

- 17           a. Discussion about her schedule;
- 18           b. Working from home;
- 19           c. Area where she would be sitting at work;
- 20           d. Salary desires;
- 21           d. Private area to pump.

22           21. Defendant Perez initially told Plaintiff to use a bathroom to pump.
23 Plaintiff explained that this would not be feasible. She was also told that she could 24 not use an office (that she had previously used to pump). In fact, Defendant Perez 25 pressed the Plaintiff by asking her if she "had to do this?" Plaintiff explained in 26
27
28

1 no uncertain terms that she had to pump. Frustrated, Perez then asked her if she
2 “had to give her an office.”

3 22. Defendant Perez responded to the pumping requests by stating that 4 she “needed to speak to human resources and figure it out.” Defendant Perez then 5 told Plaintiff that they would discuss her projects with the rest of the team at the 6 meeting.

7 23. On or about September 15, 2015, Plaintiff was present in the team
8 meeting. Five minutes into the meeting, Chief Financial Officer Joe Borrino told 9 her to exit the meeting. It was at this time that Defendant Borrino explained he did 10 not know she was coming back. Just a day after she was working towards 11 arrangements for her “pumping,” Plaintiff was terminated.

12 24. Plaintiff anticipates that the Defendants will argue that she was never 13 officially hired. Although Plaintiff disputes the accuracy of these allegations, 14 Plaintiff also alleges that as a new hire, she could not be discriminated against 15 based on her pregnancy.
16

17 25. Prior to Plaintiff’s return to work, no one had ever informed
18 Defendants who she should see about getting a room or how to gain access to a 19 lactation room.

20 26. At all times mentioned above, Defendants Perez and Borrino were 21 employees and agents of Defendant TIDAL and ROC NATION acting at all
22 material times in the scope of their employment and agency.

23 27. Based on the above mentioned acts, the Defendants violated Title VII
24 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; violated New York Human Rights Law; Violation
25 of New York State Labor Law; and Violation of New York Civil Rights Law 79-e.

27 ///

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964

(Plaintiff LISETTE PAULSON against all Defendants and DOES 1-10, inclusive)

28. Plaintiff re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 27 as if fully set forth herein.

29. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff with respect to terms and conditions of her employment on the basis of her pregnancy and sex in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. These violations include the following:

a. Defendants were required to provide Plaintiff with reasonable time to express breast milk in a private location, free from intrusion and shielded from the view of the public or other employees, at the time necessary to express breast milk.

b. Defendants refused Plaintiff reasonable time to express breast milk.

c. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with a private location free from intrusion and shielded from the view of other employees.

d. Defendants refused to provide Plaintiff a room at the time she needed to express breast milk.

e. Defendants terminated Plaintiff after she requested a private area to express breast milk.

f. Defendants failed to recognize Plaintiff as a full time employee and instead stated that she was never an employee despite the fact that she had access to an email address; access to the secured building; and was working for a week prior to her termination.

g. Defendants failed to hire Plaintiff as a full time employee.

30. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff with respect to hiring Plaintiff on a full time basis on the basis of her pregnancy and sex in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

31. As a result of Defendants' acts and omissions, Plaintiff has in the past and will in the future suffer injuries and damages including, but not limited to mental and emotional distress; anguish; humiliation; embarrassment; medical, therapeutic, and other expenses; lost enjoyment of life; lost wages, and benefits.

32. Defendants acted with malice and reckless indifference to Plaintiff's federally protected rights.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of the New York Human Rights Law

- Sex and Pregnancy Discrimination

(Plaintiff LISETTE PAULSON against

all Defendants and DOES 1-10, inclusive)

33. Plaintiff re-alleges paragraph 1 through 32 as if fully set forth herein.

34. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff with respect to the terms and conditions of her employment on the basis of her pregnancy and sex in violation of the New York Human Rights Law. These conditions include failure to accommodate her pregnancy as an employee or failing to hire her full-time due to her request to express breast milk.

35. As a result of Defendants' acts and omissions, Plaintiff has in the past and will in the future suffer damages including, but not limited to mental and emotional distress; anguish; humiliation; embarrassment; medical, therapeutic, and other expenses; lost of enjoyment of life; lost wages and benefits.

1           36. Defendants acted with willful and wanton disregard for Plaintiff's
2 rights and safety.

4                           THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

5                   Violation of Section 206-C of the New York State Labor Law

6                           (Plaintiff LISETTE PAULSON against
7                           all Defendants and DOES 1-10, inclusive)

8           37. Plaintiff re-pleads paragraphs 1 through 36 as if fully set forth herein.

9           38. Defendants were required to provide reasonable unpaid break time or 10 permit an employee to use paid break time or meal time each day to allow an 11 employee to express breast milk for her nursing child for up to three years
12 following child birth. Defendants failed to do so.

13           39. Defendants were required to make reasonable efforts to provide a
14 room or other location, in close proximity to the work area, where an employee can
15 express milk in privacy. Defendants failed to do so.

16           40. Defendants are not allowed to discriminate in any way against an 17 employee who chooses to express breast milk in the workplace.

18           41. Defendants were required to provide Plaintiff with reasonable time to
19 express breast milk in a private location, free from intrusion and shielded from the
20 view of the public or other employees, at the time necessary to express breast milk.

21           42. In addition, Defendants failed to comply with the statute by failing to:
22           a. Provide written notice of the provisions of Labor Law Section 23 206-c to employees who are returning to work, following the birth of 24 a child, and their right to take unpaid leave for the purpose of 25 expressing breast milk. Such notice may either be provided
26 individually to affected employees or to all employees generally
27
28

through publication of such notice in the employee handbook or posting of the notice in a central location.

- b. Allow Plaintiff to work before or after her normal shift to make up the amount of time used during the unpaid break time(s) for the expression of breast milk.
- c. Allow Plaintiff to breastfeed in a room that was not a restroom, toilet stall, or a vacant office that was not accessible to the public or other employees.
- d. Allow Plaintiff access to a well lit room that also contains a chair and a small table, desk, counter or other flat surface. Defendants did not provide an outlet, clean water supply and access to refrigeration for the purposes of storing the expressed milk.
- e. Maintain the cleanliness of the room or location set aside for the use of Plaintiff expressing breast milk at work.
- f. Provide any room or location for the expression of breast milk in close proximity to the work area of Plaintiff using it for the expression of breast milk.
- g. Prevent discrimination against Plaintiff who chose to express breast milk in the workplace.
- h. Prevent a work environment that is hostile to the right of Plaintiff to take leave for the purpose of expressing breast milk.

43. As a result of Defendants' acts and omissions, Plaintiff has in the past and will in the future suffer damages including, but not limited to mental and emotional distress; anguish; humiliation; embarrassment; medical, therapeutic, and other expenses; lost of enjoyment of life; lost wages; and benefits.

1           44. Defendants acted with malice and reckless indifference for Plaintiff's
2 rights and safety.

4                           FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5                   Violation of New York Civil Rights Law Section 79-e

6                   (Plaintiff LISETTE PAULSON against
7                   all Defendants and DOES 1-10, inclusive)

8           45. Plaintiff re-pleads paragraphs 1 through 44 as if fully set forth herein.

9           46. New York Civil Rights Law Section 79-e states that: a mother may 10 breastfeed her child in any public or private location where she is otherwise 11 authorized to be. Plaintiff sought to breastfeed at Defendants' location where she 12 was an employee.

13           47. Defendants were required to make reasonable efforts to provide a
14 room or other location, in close proximity to the work area, where an employee can
15 express milk in privacy. Defendants failed to do so.

16           48. Defendants are not allowed to discriminate in any way against an 17 employee and or a potential hire who chooses to express breast milk in the 18 workplace.

19           49. Defendants were required to provide Plaintiff with reasonable time to 20 express breast milk in a private location, free from intrusion and shielded from the
21 view of the public or other employees, at the time necessary to express breast milk.

22           50. As a result of Defendants' acts and omissions, Plaintiff has in the past
23 and will in the future suffer damages including, but not limited to mental and 24 emotional distress; anguish; humiliation; embarrassment; medical, therapeutic, and
25 other expenses; lost of enjoyment of life; lost wages; and benefits.
26
27
28

1           51. Defendants acted with malice and reckless indifference for Plaintiff's
2 rights and safety.

5                           FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6                   Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress

7                           (Plaintiff LISETTE PAULSON against
8                           all Defendants and DOES 1-10, inclusive)

9           52. Plaintiff re-pleads paragraphs 1 through 51 as if fully set forth herein.

10           53. When Plaintiff accepted employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was 11 assured job security and that she would not be discharged without good cause, and 12 thereafter remained in her employment in reliance on those assurances.

13           54. Defendants were in a position of power over Plaintiff, with potential
14 to abuse that power. Plaintiff was in a vulnerable position because she relied upon 15 her employment as a source of income for her support, because a wrongful 16 termination of plaintiff's employment would likely harm plaintiff's ability to find 17 other employment and because of the great disparity in bargaining power between 18 Plaintiff and her employer. Defendants were aware of Plaintiff's vulnerability and 19 the reasons for it.
20

21           55. Defendants discharged Plaintiff without good cause or caused her to 22 be discharged without good cause, and confirmed and ratified the discharge.
23 Defendants' discharge of Plaintiff and the manner in which they accomplished it 24 was outrageous in that they terminated her for seeking to express breast milk. The 25 Defendants at all times intended to discharge plaintiff without good cause, in 26 violation of the employment agreement, leaving Plaintiff without her employment 27 and without the income, sense of self worth, and security which she derived from 28

1 her employment, and which Defendants knew that she derived from her
2 employment.

3 56. This conduct by Defendants was intended to cause Plaintiff emotional
4 distress or was done with reckless disregard of the probability of causing Plaintiff's
5 emotional distress.

6 57. Plaintiff suffered severe emotional distress as a legal result of 7 Defendant's outrageous conduct. Plaintiff suffered severe mental distress,
8 suffering and anguish as a legal result of Defendants' outrageous conduct, reacting 9 to her discharge with humiliation, embarrassment, anger, disappointment and 10 worry, all of which is substantial and enduring.

11 58. As a result of Defendants' acts and omissions, Plaintiff has in the past 12 and will in the future suffer damages including, but not limited to mental and
13 emotional distress; anguish; humiliation; embarrassment; medical, therapeutic, and
14 other expenses; lost of enjoyment of life; lost wages; and benefits.

16 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 Breach of Oral Promise / Contract

18 (Plaintiff LISETTE PAULSON against
19 all Defendants and DOES 1-10, inclusive)
20

21 59. Plaintiff re-pleads paragraphs 1 through 58 as if fully set forth herein.

22 60. Plaintiff and Defendants entered into an oral employment contract
23 guaranteeing Plaintiff's employment. The basic terms of the agreement provided 24 that Plaintiff's employment would be secure for as long as her performance was 25 satisfactory, that Plaintiff would not be terminated without good cause, and that 26 Plaintiff would earn agreed-upon wages and fringe benefits.
27
28

61. Plaintiff undertook and continued employment and duly performed all of the conditions of the employment agreement to be performed by her until prevented by Defendants from further performance. Plaintiff had, at all times, been ready, willing and able to perform all of the conditions of the agreement to be performed by her. Plaintiff relied on the Defendant's representations including but not limited to failing to secure other employment.

62. Defendant breached the oral employment agreement by discharging Plaintiff without good cause and despite her continued satisfactory performance. She was discharged for requesting a separate room to express breast milk despite representations from the Defendant that she was hired as a full time employee after her maternity. For this reason, Plaintiff did not seek any other employment.

63. Plaintiff suffered damages legally caused by the breach of contract as stated in the section below, which is incorporated here to the extent pertinent as if set forth here in full.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Retaliation Under New York Human Rights Law

*(Plaintiff LISETTE PAULSON against
all Defendants and DOES 1-10, inclusive)*

64. Plaintiff re-pleads paragraphs 1 through 63 as if fully set forth herein.

65. Defendant's conduct, as alleged, violated of New York Human Rights Law, and defendants committed unlawful employment practices, including by the following, separate bases for liability:

a. Harassing plaintiff and/or creating a hostile work environment in whole or in part on the basis of plaintiff's sex, including pregnancy, and/or other protected characteristics, in violation of New York Human Rights Law.

1           4.     For an award of general and special damages in the amount to be
2 proven at trial;

3           5.     For reasonable costs of this suit incurred herein;

4           6.     For reasonable attorney's fees and costs as provided by law;

5           7.     For appropriate equitable and injunctive relief;

6           8.     For such further other relief as the Court may deem just, proper and 7 appropriate.
